When do you need to report?

Annual reporting dates are set in legislation. Reports must be provided to us each year, not more than 28 days after your organisation's annual general meeting (AGM).

Under the Public and Community Housing Management Act 1992, if we consider it necessary, we may give formal direction to CHPs on the contents of their financial statements and accounts to be provided to CHRA, which may include requiring additional types of financial reporting. If we require information under s.176 we must publish those directions in the Gazette.

For CHPs who do not have an AGM, we will confirm a date with you that aligns with your organisation's annual accounts being signed off. For further information on annual reporting dates, please contact us directly.
